

BOOKWORM

F            A#            C            F
bookworm bookworm reads a book a day
F                            A#    C                            F
though the sun is out he won't come out to play

Dm                    F            A#                    F
I called him on a Monday morning not too late
A#                    F                            G7                            C
but he was deep into a book and would not take the bait
Dm                    F            A#                    F
I called him on a Tuesday afternoon for tea
Gm    C#7    C
but he was just beginning to read        the history of history

Dm                    F            A#                    F
I called him on a Wednesday evening just to chat
A#                    F                            G7                            C
he was reading a western while wearing a cowboy hat
Dm                    F            A#                    F
I called him on a thursday        mid afternoon
Gm    C#7    C
but he was going down for a nap        reading goodnight moon

Dm                    F            A#                    F
I called him on a friday he had a good excuse
A#                    F                            G7                            C he was laughing too hard to talk form reading Dr. Sues
Dm                    F            A#                    F
I called him on a Saturday at the crack of dawn
Gm    C#7    C
he put down the phone to finish a book        and I'm still holding on

Dm                    F            A#                    F
called him on a Sunday just before midnight
Gm    C#7    C
but he was reading a mystery        in the dark with a little light