

LONDON BRIDGE IS FALLING APART

A

well if all the kings men could not fix humpty dumpty
how they gonna fix a bridge that's brittle split and crumbly

D7

someday they will replace the wood brick by brick

A

for now they will repair it slowly stick by stick

E7

A

london bridge london bridge london bridge is falling apart

A

well Mother Goose would rather paddle across than use it the mouse from hickory dickory dock chooses not to choose it

D7

Jack was nimble Jack was quicker than any man

A

but Jack would rather catch a boat than walk accross that span

E7

A

london bridge london bridge london bridge is falling apart

solo - A G C G A (2) A G C G (3) E

A

well the Duke of York marched his men up and down it and when they did parts and pieces and bits were fallin' off it

D7

Mary Mary quite contrary said the bridge was stable

A

then she swam across that river just as fast as she was able (go Mary go)

A

london bridge is falling apart london bridge is falling apart
london bridge is falling apart london bridge is falling apart