| F | C#7 G# |
|---------|---|
| | there are some animals that get up when the moon is full |
| | D# F |
| ar F | nd when that moon is gone they stretch and start to yawn C#7 G# |
| | they do not like daylight they can't wait for another night |
| to | party on your lawn 'till the break of dawn |
| D | |
| G | cyotes need the dark to hunt for tasty snacks # A# |
| D | in the shadows rats eat cheese out of the traps # |
| G | raccoons leave for work and give thier babies hugs |
| | hedgehogs use the gloom to dig for sleepy bugs |
| D | |
| G | |
| D | frogs on logs make a symphony of sound # F |
| | they all belong to a nocturnal club G# C |
| tł | ney run from the sun when the sun is coming up |
| S | olo - D# F G# A# D# F G# A# |
| D | # F G# A# |
| D | so should you wake up from your sleep listen oh so carefully # F |
| | you might hear them sing this night time song |
| G | # C and if you do sing along |
| | F G# A# C |
| 't | ill the break of dawn on and on on and on on and on (3) |
| uı | ntil the break of dawn |