GROGGY BABY

G D A
now that the day is done and we have run our races
G D A it's time to mellow out and stare out into spaces
G D A
of all the babies you've got the cutest of all faces A# F
you yawn I yawn because baby yawns are contagious
D Daug D Daug D
groggy baby groggy baby you can barely hold up your head D Daug G
D Daug D Daug G groggy baby groggy baby how 'bout maybe you head to bed?
G D A
you're so relaxed seems like your bones are made of jell-o
G D A that's what it's like when a baby gets too mellow
G D A
the sunset lights your eyes purple orange and yellow
A# F you burrow deep into a soft and fluffy pillow
you burron doop into a core and narry pillon
D Daug D Daug D
groggy baby groggy baby you can barely hold up your head D Daug D Daug F# groggy baby groggy baby how 'bout maybe you head to bed?

G D A
day was long your thoughts are feeling cloggy
G D A let me change your nappy the one you've got is soggy
G D A
even our memories of today are growing foggy
A# F
the night outside makes you small and hot and groggy
